"The quality convenient, affordable alternative to scoring and presenting your golf tournament."

Ace Tournament Services consists of two key concepts:

1. Computerized Tournament Scoring and 2. Digital Banquet Presentation.

Take the Headache Out of Registration

Ace Tournament Services will provide you with up to date alphabetical and foursome reports of each player in your tournament, leading to a hassle free registration so you can focus on meeting and greeting your tournament guests.

Give your players the personalized touch they deserve.

Our tournament scoring software has outpaced its competitors and impressed our clients with its many high quality and versatile features including an extensive selection of scoring formats, custom scorecards, dynamic cart signs and corporate/ sponsor labeling.

Custom scorecards and cart signs give your tournament a personalized touch. We ensure that all player changes are taken care of immediately allowing even the last minute additions to get the recognition they deserve.

Give your sponsors maximum exposure

With respect to the banquet presentation component of the golf tournament, we employ the Ace Digital Banquet Network, which is designed to enhance key components of golf tournament banquet presentations of all types and sizes using leading edge broadcast and internet technology.

Generate Revenue by using Ace Tournament Services

In addition to enhancing the presentation of key components of any golf tournament such as tee times, starting hole positions, final score results etc. the Ace Digital Banquet Presentation Network allows the tournament organizer or host corporation the ability to increase tournament revenue by digitally showcasing major advertisers, sponsors, corporate products and charitable causes.

We are also able to enhance the entertainment value of the event by displaying digital video and photographic highlights of the tournament during the cocktail reception.

“Why not Ace your event?”

Overall, given that the powerful combination of the Ace Tournament Software and the Ace Digital Banquet Presentation Network can enhance the quality, organization, convenience and economics of your tournament, why not “Ace your event” by contracting Ace Tournament Services for your next tournament.
